E PLURIBUS UNUM

... Ex Libris
Dedication

• To the two famed field units of Rogers, the Pirettes and the Drum and Bugle Corps, which have put forth their utmost to add spirit and color in the many Athletic Contests and Civic Affairs, we dedicate this, the 1939 Treasure Chest.

In Memoriam

Betty Lemon

1924-1938

“We loved none other more than she
But God, needing her more than we,
Sent a heavenly angel down
To add a jewel to her crown.”
Alma Mater

In the golden sunset of the Westland
None her splendor to deny,
Stauneh and noble stands our Alma Mater,
We love thee, Rogers High!
In each contest we'll uphold thee,
Lift thy banner to the sky.

As of old the Red man bowed to Rogers
As he marched with head held high,
So our foes, whatever the endeavor,
Will bow to Rogers High!
Ever loyal, Alma Mater
We will shout thy name on high.

When our days within thy walls are ended,
And the years fly swiftly by,
Backward we shall turn with wistful gaze
To the days at Rogers High!
Loyal hearts, our strong devotion
We will pledge thee till we die.

Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah, for mighty Rogers
We sing of Rogers High.

January Class History

- Leaving four years of high school behind them, 96 students were handed their diplomas Tuesday evening, January 24.

  Kathryn Luse led the class scholastically, while Beulah McGhee gained the honor of Salutatorian.

  Miles Ertel was class president, aided by Charles Gumm as vice-president; Joe McBreen, secretary; and Norma Thompson, treasurer. Esther Bossio was Student Council president during the last semester of the class.

January Commencement

- At the January class graduation, the school motion picture camera was first operated before the general public. Eight minutes of film, part in color, were shown of school activities.

  Led by Ted Oster as attorney for complaints, and Charles Gumm, defense attorney, the members of the special senior English class gave a play in the form of a hearing conducted by the school board. Ralph Farano, as chairman of the school board, gave their decision after hearing the witnesses.

  Winnie Mac Drake, Hilda Johnson, Audrey Duffy, Mary Jane Cass, Arcade Moreland, and Florence St. Onge enacted the parts of parents who disapproved of certain phases of school life, while Edith Hoye, Patricia O'Grady, Eugene Sandberg, Martin Palmquist, and Pearl Eames were the students who upheld the present curriculum.

  Phyllis Lammers, Fern Ray, Esther Bossio, and Kathryn Luse comprised the members of the school board.

June Class History

- Entering in September 1935 as a class of 197, the graduating Seniors of June 1939 were then the largest class ever to start their high school days at Rogers. They maintain a size distinction to the end. On Friday evening, June 7, diplomas will be handed to 193 seniors—the largest class ever to be graduated.

Scholarship honors go to Rosina Johnson, Valeditorian, and Eleanor Smith, Salutatorian. Bob Swartz leads the class through its last days at Rogers, while Don Hughes holds the position of vice-president. Rosina Johnson keeps the minutes as secretary, and Don Carter is treasurer.

Two members of the class have occupied the Editor's desk on the Record staff; Bob Swartz, and Paul Betten. Ralph Berg headed the Student Council during the last semester.

June Commencement

- Past present and future democracy will be portrayed at the June graduation in "Challenge of Democracy." The script was written by the special English 8 class under the direction of Paul MacGown of the English department.

Those participating in the commencement program and production were Wayne Dalke, Johnny Olsen, Lois Cox, Yvonne Burke, Dick Johnson, Jean Starry, John Petty, Annette Haines, June Enos, Anna Mae Erickson, Ethylle Anderson, Ray Manley, Eleanor Smith, Doris Montague, Lucille Graedel, Al Akins, Jeanne Fletcher, Bob Swartz, Russell Thompson, Gordon Nelson, Ralph Oberg, James Hayes, George Casey, Bob Berger, Joyce Fairburn, and Don Steele.

The star (*) means the games played at night.

- After making a not-to-good start in the big Merry-Go-Round game on September 28, Rogers went on to win two and tie two out of six city gridiron clashes last fall, under the coaching of Carl Ellingsen, new gridiron mentor.

The Pirates finished in third spot in the city series behind Gonzaga and Lewis and Clark.

Highlights of the season was Rogers defeat over the highly touted Gonzaga in the final game of the year.

A TRIBUTE BY THE STAFF

The spring semester of 1939 marks the retirement of a faithful study hall supervisor, Mrs. Lutie Brown, following fourteen years of service with Hillyard and Rogers High Schools.

Although her position forced her to keep order at the expense of mischievous boys and girls, there are thousands of students and alumni who can thank her for keeping study conditions suitable for accomplishing a maximum amount of work.

She began her services with schools forty-two years ago in Burlington, Kansas. She has been in service in Spokane grade schools since 1912 and several grade schools have claimed her services.

This book will be a lasting memory of the appreciative feeling of the John R. Rogers student body for her years of service in study hall.

Romantic carryings-on among the vegetables:

“But darling we cantelope on your celery—”

“I artichoke you for that honey—”

“I’ve been thinking and we could squash our troubles and beet the world if we were a pear.”

Her face became radish as she slowly drawled, “Lettuce.”

We know this is corny but we don’t carrot all.

Rosina Johnson and Helen Ratliff were talking about getting married on some future date.

Rosina: “I am going to marry a doctor, for when I am sick, I can get well for nothing.”

Helen: “I’m going to marry a preacher, for when I’m bad, I can be good for nothing.”

Harold Gendreau: (To friend) “Bob, lend me 20 cents and only give me ten of them. Then you’ll owe me ten, and I’ll owe you ten and we’ll be straight.”

To Wayne Dalke: “When I am sad, I sing, and others are sad with me.”

Ruth LaTelle: “Oh look! The players are covered with mud. How do you think they will get it off?”

Kathryn West: “What do you think the scrub team’s for?”

Gladys Smith: “What is that bump on your forehead?”

Johnny Goodman: “Oh, that’s where a thought struck me.”

“This pen leaks,” said the convict as the rain came through the roof.

"Barque," exclaimed Miss Herbert again.

Joyce Fleming: "My Scotch boy friend sent me his picture yesterday."
Doris Morris: "How does he look?"
Joyce: "I don't know. I haven't had it developed yet."

Mr. Tewinkle was putting a squad of Pi-rettes through their paces. Try as he would, he could not get a straight line. Finally in exasperation, he shouted, "What's the matter with you? Can't you line up? All of you fall out and take a look at the line you've made."

Warren Saltz: "My hair is full of electricity."
Helen Fry: "No wonder, it's connected with a dry cell."

Mr. Eaman: "How many natural magnets are there?"
Jack Alden: "Blonds, brunettes, and red-heads."

Mr. Byrne, (to sleepy student): "Does the hot air bother you? If it does, I'll open the window."
Brock Weir: "Naw—you can go on talking."

Did You Ever Hear of This?
A Freshman’s head is full of air,
Of air so hot and breezy,
A Sophomore’s head is full of naught,
Of naught but “Take life easy.”
A Junior’s head is full of love.
The love you get at college;
A Senior’s head is full of brains,
A greater amount of knowledge.

The youthful graduate from agricultural college looked rather scornfully at the old farmer. “Your methods of cultivation are hopelessly out of date,” he said with a superior air. “Why I’d be surprised if you got 10 pounds of apples off that tree.”

“So would I,” said the farmer, “It’s a pear tree.”

Wanda Watts: “I wonder how old Miss Swann is?”
Nada Watts: “She must be awfully old, because I heard she used to teach Caesar.”

Elmer Click: "Give me a sentence with the word fascinate!"
Russell Thompson: "I've got nine buttons on my coat but I can only fascinate."

James Forsyth: "See here, waiter, I found a button in my salad."
Waiter: "That's queer, it must have fallen in when we put on the dressing."

Jim Snyder: "I'm just like Napoleon."
Rosie Rizzuto: "How's that?"
Jim Snyder: "I just went down in history."

Time is passing,
I'm not glad,
Time is passing
I am sad.
Time is passing,
Sad is my lot.
Time is passing,
I am not.

Knock! Knock!
Who's there?
Phillip
Phillip who?
This is put here to Phillip space.

Ruth Swanson: "We had a math test today and I passed."
Joyce Fletcher: "Honestly?"
Ruth Swanson: "What's the difference?"

We editors may dig and toil
Till our finger tips are sore,
But some young squirt is sure to say,
I heard that joke before.

Miss Simet: "What is concentration?"
Betty Sims: "Mental agony."

Ray Manley: "Please!"
She: "No."
Ray: "Oh, please!"
She: "No, No."
Ray: "Oh, just this once!"
She: "I said no."
Ray: "Oh, go ahead."
She: "Positively not."
Ray: 'Oh, gee, Mom, all the fellows are wearing those sweaters now.'

Even his best friends wouldn't tell him—so he flunked the exam.
